Il Palazzone 2003

Brunello di Montalcino

90

Il Palazzone's 2003 Brunello di Montalcino is an excellent choice for near-term consumption as the wine shows very pretty early tertiary notes. Made in a sweet, open style, it reveals perfumed dark fruit, spices, tobacco, leather and sweet toasted oak on a medium-bodied frame. Anticipated maturity: 2008-2015.
